How to Enjoy “TAX-FREE” Living Tomorrow... When You Take This Action Today!

Oak Brook, IL. May 5, 2009 – Research by the Foundation for Financial Freedom, LLC of Oak Brook Illinois, reveals a unique “gift” in IRS tax regulations that allows tax-free living for any taxpayer who takes action today. This gift requires special preparation now to take full advantage of a limited opening in 2010 to convert tax-deferred assets (IRA, 401K, etc.) into a tax-free platform. It may require a “one-time” tax on this conversion per the IRS TIPRA regulations.

“This is a Retirement Recovery Plan that can help taxpayers bounce-back from the recession’s impact on savings accounts to help position you for an early and more comfortable retirement,” said Gary T. Shorter, Managing Member of The Foundation. “A plan with action is essential to take advantage of this small window-of-opportunity as President Obama’s tax changes may close this loophole forever, so time is of the essence if you want to enjoy tax-free living,” Shorter said.

The Foundation offers a 3-step Research Report; 1) details of the IRS gift, 2) plan for action and 3) early retirement bonus at the website: www.FoundFreedom.org. The Foundation for Financial Freedom, LLC is intended to be a not-for-profit organization, focused on educational services with real-time market research to help its members gain control of their financial future and Learn to Earn the Income You Deserve™.
